Notable features:

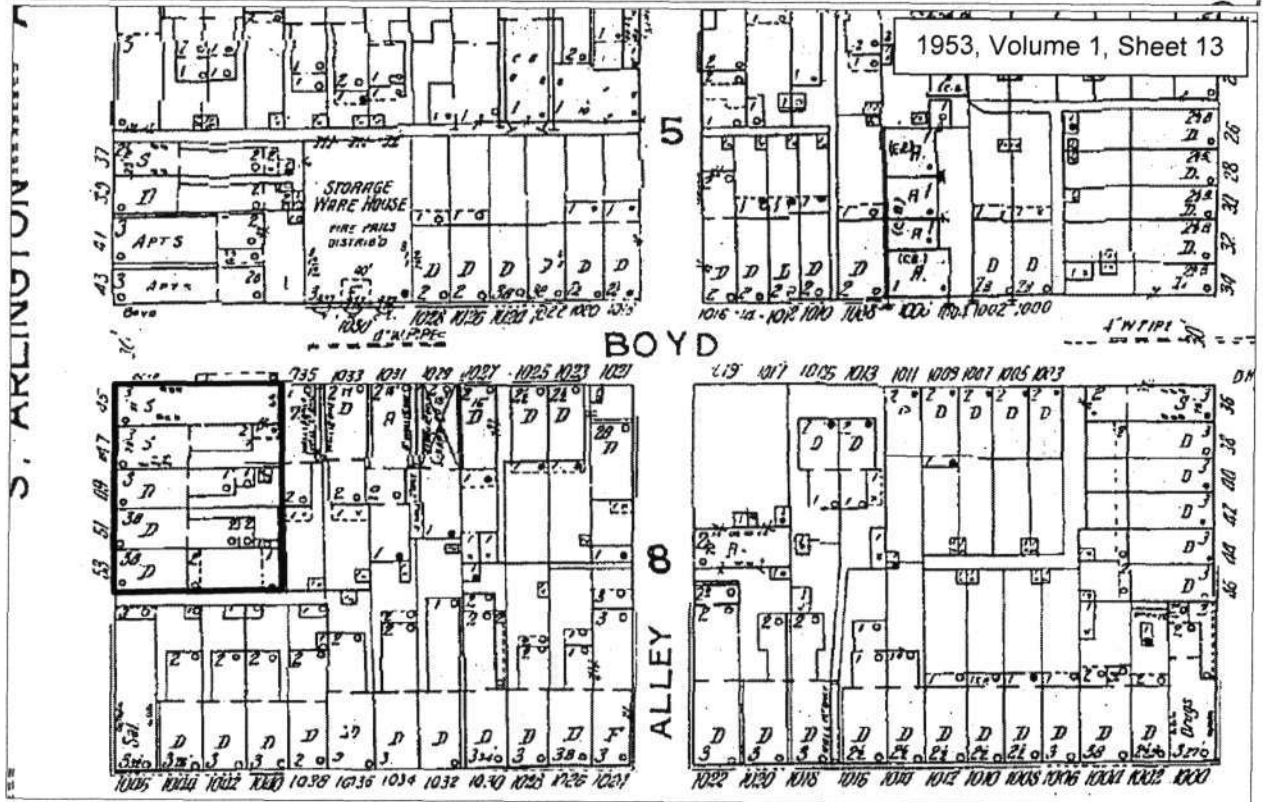

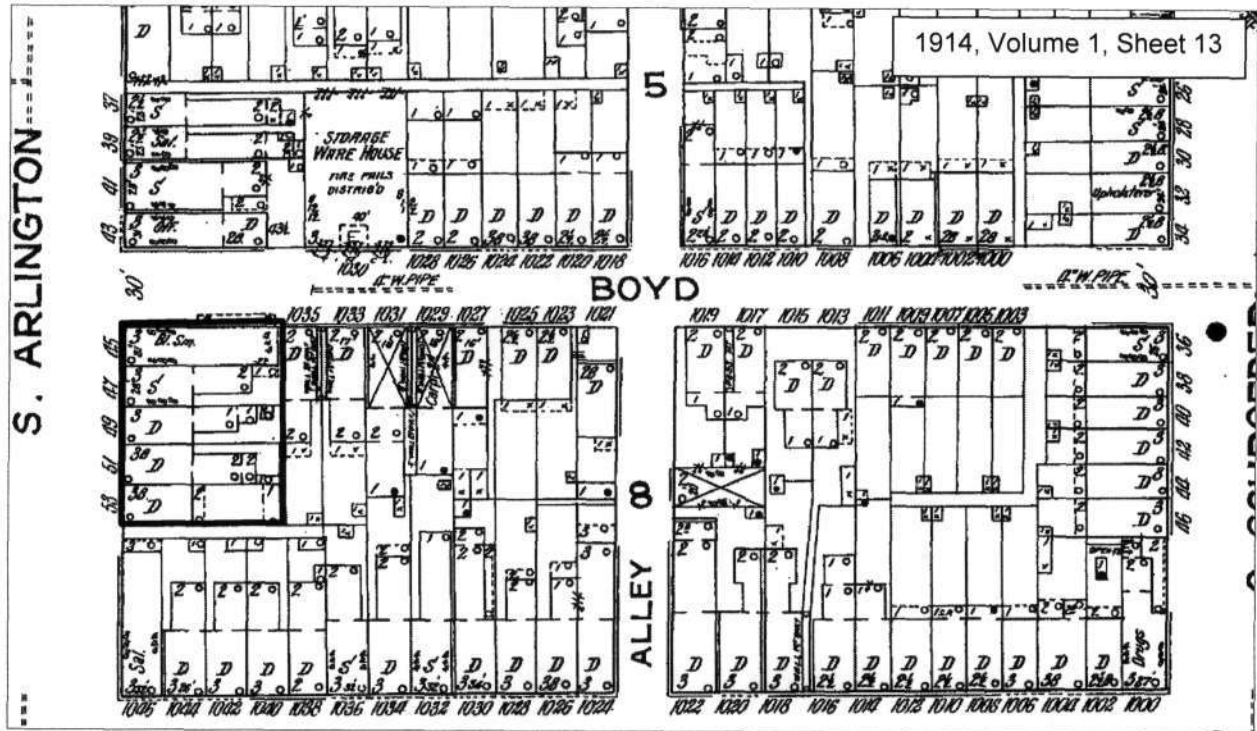

These are later 19th century replacements for a group of shed-roofed houses scattered throughout the block, some set back from the street. Formstone is unsightly on numbers 49 and 53.

Environmental context:

Number 49 is vacant. Maps show Arlington in this block to be torn up all the way to Lombard Street (as it is now from Boyd up to Hollins). Diagonal parking for the Market and as in Carrollton Street, this block must be a part of an overall plan for the Market. Street trees would help, even now.
